

Starting March 1st, 2017,
Mills Office Productivity
will be partnering with Free Geek Vancouver to collect your electronic waste.

Free Geek Vancouver is a non-profit organization that works to reduce the environmental impact of electronic waste by reusing and ethically recycling donated technology.

All you need to do is place your order with Mills, and when your office supplies are delivered we will pick up your electronic waste!

Donations must be packaged and labelled in standard-size boxes not over 12x12x18 inches. Items not boxed and labelled will not be accepted. If you have large items or more than 5 boxes, please contact our office for more information.

Items we accept:

- Computers
- Monitors
- Printers
- Projectors
- Cell Phones
- MP3 Players
- Keyboards
- Mice
- Cables
- Batteries
